

RECRUITING ADVISE

TOP 5 QUESTIONS TO ASK COACHES

1

What happens to my son if you leave the school?

College coaching changes happen every year. You don't want your child's education to be in jeopardy because of a coach leaving his school.

2

How does my son fit your program plans for the future?

A coach's vision that lines up with the vision you have for your child's playing time and playing style will help to find out if the school is the right one for you

3

What academic help is going to be provided to my son?

All students receive academic help if needed. However, the time commitment dedicated to playing basketball may require additional academic support.

4

How does playing basketball at your school help my son with his career path?

It doesn't matter who you are, the ball stops bouncing sometime. Basketball is a great tool, if used correctly can help set up your career path.

5

How many players are you planning to bring in this year?

Knowing some schools can bring upwards of 10 new players in a year is something to keep an eye out for.
